Carry Enough Cash

Río Lagartos has only one ATM, so it is recommended to withdraw money in Mérida or Cancún.

Stay Well Hydrated

The heat in Yucatán can be extreme, so it's important to stay hydrated throughout your visit.

Bring Specialized Medication

If you have any medical conditions like diabetes, ensure you bring your necessary medications or fruits, as medical resources are limited.

Safe Parking Available

The boardwalk offers plenty of parking space, and the vehicle theft rate is virtually zero.

Proper Sun Protection

Use sunscreen, a hat, and sunglasses to protect yourself from the intense Yucatán sun, especially along the coast.

Check the Weather Before Traveling

Check the weather before your visit to be prepared. Bring light clothing for the heat and a raincoat in case of unexpected showers.

Limited Internet Connection

In some areas of Río Lagartos, the internet connection may be limited or non-existent. Take the opportunity to disconnect and enjoy the natural surroundings.

Wear Comfortable Clothes and Shoes

Wear comfortable clothing and shoes for exploring, as many tours involve walking or spending long hours outdoors.
